

ROSE HARVEY

Trustee

Job Role: Change Consultant

Rosie is the founder of her own consultancy firm which drives collaboration and effectiveness across socially impactful organisations. She provides support to public sector bodies, charities, and the NHS, facilitating meaningful change, including partnering with an international Ministry of Education to enhance education accessibility in remote regions and assisting UK health-focused charities in fostering stronger collaborations.

Rosie also brings education experience to the Board as a qualified secondary school teacher and former University Lecturer and Researcher, specialising in teaching and learning best practices. Her connection to our educational community runs deep, having attended Ashby School, one of our LIFE Trust schools.

An experienced board member, Rosie is currently Vice-Chair of the Board of the Co-operative College, a charity and international education provider. Additionally, Rosie volunteers for Refugees at Home, hosting asylum seekers in her home.

