NAME: Chris Parkinson

ROLE: CEO & Trustee

During his tenure as the headteacher of Bosworth Academy, Chris Parkinson led the school through three Ofsted inspections, including one in October 2017 where it was rated outstanding. Under his visionary leadership, the school consistently achieved results that surpassed both national and local averages. The October 2017 Ofsted report lauded the school's leadership and management as outstanding. Since then, the school has not only retained its Investors in People Gold Award but also achieved World Class School Status. Following the academisation of Bosworth as a SAT in 2012 and the subsequent establishment of LiFE Multi Academy Trust in 2016, Chris Parkinson was appointed as the CEO. Between 2012 and 2022, the trust has experienced significant growth and now encompasses 10 schools, including 6 secondary and 4 primary. Additionally, Chris Parkinson serves as a Trustee appointed by members.
