

inspiration innovation integrity

NAME: David Maitland

ROLE: Chair, Trust Board

Retired Accountant David is a Chartered Accountant who has recently retired from the role as Treasury Manager of a 4,500 property central London Housing Association. He has almost 40 years experience working in senior finance roles in the charitable Social Housing sector, with a wide range of duties in finance, staff management & development, treasury management, risk management, strategic business planning, governance & IT. He now devotes his efforts to assisting a small number of charities as well as being a member of Lions Clubs International serving the local and wider community.